Let's Just Imagine!

Let's just imagine what might happen in our family, community, church, nation, and world if all believers KINGDOM OF GOD ON EARTH! helped usher in the

When people embrace their role in the Kingdom of God here on earth, their EYES, EARS, MIND, HANDS, FEET & VOICE will be used to reflect their faith.

They will use their EYES to look for needs that are unmet, and to watch over those in positions of authority.

They will use their EARS to listen for the cries of those in pain, and to hear and address comments that demean those in need.

They will use their MIND to think of ways to get involved and to question for themselves what God would have them do for Him.

They will use their HANDS to do what is needed, remembering that it is through their hands that Jesus touches the "least of these."

They will use their FEET to go where needed...overseas, across the street or into the voting booth...to bring the Kingdom of God to those in need.

They will use their VOICE to speak up and out for those without a voice, and to hold those with power accountable to remember "the least of these" when making decisions.

Wouldn't it be lovely to live in a world like that!?!

About the Author.

Charlie Stuart was raised in the church by faithful, loving parents whose lives of service to “the others” inspired Charlie and his five siblings to purpose their lives to serve others, particularly the “least of these.”

Charlie has been active in the local church all his life serving as: Deacon, adult Bible study leader (20+ years), member of a pastor search committee and all the other committees in the local church.

Charlie graduated from the University of Florida in 1973 with an undergraduate degree in Marketing, with a focus on Economics. He worked in the family's office products company for 16 years and spent the following 20 years as a professional speaker, author, and consultant.

He also made time to volunteer for 25+ years with the YMCA as a local board member and on national task forces for the YMCA of the USA.

Charlie and his wife Barbara have three grown children and six grandchildren. They live in Orlando (College Park), Florida.

- IX. Jesus Rejects those who Claim to be His Followers but Don't Follow the Gospel of Jesus.
- X. With His last words, Jesus commands His Followers to teach others the Gospel of Jesus.

Foundational Truths.

The Foundational Truths of the Gospel of Jesus.

As the Son of God, Jesus had the power and authority to do as He saw fit. He could have removed all who stood against Him – but He didn't. He could have established the Kingdom of God on Earth by “executive order” – but He didn't. He could have cured all diseases, ceased all war, imposed justice for all, and re-planted the Garden of Eden – but He didn't.

Rather, Jesus taught the “Way of Jesus” to those He met and knew. He taught what His Followers needed to know and left a living manual for establishing the Kingdom of God on Earth with His Followers, with instructions to teach everyone, everywhere what He said and did.

He put the keys to unlocking the Kingdom of God on Earth into the hands of His Followers. He gave examples of what He meant by the “Kingdom of God on Earth” through the healings, miracles, prophecies, and parables.

Many of the Foundational Truths of the Gospel of Jesus are overarching in their application. They apply to all situations and should be embraced by His Followers as essential to their role in ushering in the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth.

By applying a Gospel-of-Jesus lens to these scriptures, we seek to know and follow what Jesus intended when He first spoke to them.

Foundational Truths.

Christianity without full faith and belief in the Gospel of Jesus is not Christian. As Jesus said, “I never knew you, depart from Me...”

Jesus said it, not me.

The church a long time ago, and still today, chose Paul over Jesus as the author of “The Gospel.” It’s not Paul’s fault; he wrote what he believed.

It’s pastors who ignore the divinity of the living Jesus and give priority to Paul’s teaching over the Gospel of Jesus.

There is only the Complete Gospel of Jesus, the Christ. Anything less is not Christian.
